

(Sponsored by Abbey Prairie Arts Council)

Pastel Painting Workshop

'Daybreak in Yellowstone'

Artist and Instructor ~ Sheila Rieman

July 17 – July 19, 2009

At The Assumption Abbey, 418 3rd Ave West, Richardton, ND
(Minimum 10 Students)

Sheila Rieman is an award winning pastel artist and an experienced instructor. The Richardton Assumption Abbey has a wonderfully relaxing and enjoyable atmosphere for creating art. Workshop participants will work in a large room with artists' north lighting and a full panoramic view of rolling prairie hills. Students will dine with the monks and take accommodations in former college dorms. On the Abbey grounds you will have the opportunity to visit a pottery studio, wine cellar and gift shop. St. Mary's church is beautiful and is a work of art in itself. It was built in Bavarian Romanesque Style. When you arrive in Richardton off of I-94, (23 miles east of Dickinson or 73 miles west of Bismarck) just look to the North for the twin steeples of the church. Welcome to Western North Dakota.

Registration Fee: $200.00 Reserves your spot. (Does not include lodging and meals) Cut-off date for workshop Registration is by June 30, 2009. If the class does not fill by this date, your payment will be refunded. Lodging costs at the Abbey are: Single $20.00 per night.
